For over 16 years the 501(c)3 agency known as THAP (Tampa Hillsborough Action Plan, Inc., 1987) has been renting out low cost office space, and more recently, incubating start up businesses in the 5508 facility. The property, which originally housed 66 storage units, was acquired by and is 100% owned by THAP's Property Management subsidiary Coastal Bay Properties, Incorporated. Coastal Bay Properties is a registered 501(c)3, whose dual purpose is to alleviate the shortage in supply of affordable workspace and to access business services for emerging companies in East Tampa. In addition, this initiative also provides a revenue source to support THAP's other social enterprise services (i.e., healthcare, housing) that it provides to Hillsborough County's low-income communities. In January 2014, the agency began a five-year plan to transform five acres of land located at 5508 N. 50th Street, an East Tampa CRA, into the 5508 Co-Working & Collaboration Exchange. The 5508 Co-Working & Collaboration Exchange is a combination Business Incubator and Co-Working space used to house and grow entrepreneurs and their businesses. In conjunction to providing these comprehensive suites, the "Collaborative" provides entrepreneurial focused programs to over 40 early stage companies and as many as 200 "Co-Working" members.
