The description should summarize the entire project's intended purpose, the purpose of the funds requested (if request is a sub-part of the entire project), and most importantly the detail on how the funds requested will be spent - for example how much will be spent on positions and associated salaries, specifics on capital costs, and detail of operational expenses. The summary must list what local, regional or statewide interests or areas are served. It should also document the need for the funds, the community support and expected results when applicable. Be sure to include the type and amount of services as well as the number of the specific target population that will be served (such as number of home health visits to X, # of elderly, # of school aged children to receive mentoring, # of violent crime victims to receive once a week counseling etc.)

JA is the Nation's, and Florida's, largest organization dedicated to educating young people about business, economics and free enterprise. Through a dedicated volunteer network of nearly 30,000, Junior Achievement of Florida offers in-school and after-school programs for students in grades K-12 in 49 school districts and within 1,450 schools. JA programs focus on six key content areas: business, citizenship, economics, entrepreneurship, financial literacy, and career development. For more information, visit www.ja.org. 12,500 middle and high school student will gain the knowledge, skills, and attitudes necessary for future success for entry into a career field or post-secondary education. This issue was included in Senate Appropriations Bill in 2015 and ultimately considered and included in conference report.
